

Appendix 1: Negative Data on Credit Extension Businesses of Financial Institutions

Data		Contents
I.D. No./Tax I.D. of Data Subject
Name/Name of Juristic Person of Data Subject
Date/Month and Year of Credit Extension Data		Year and month of the latest credit extension data which the JICC makes available to member institutions
Data contents	N	0	There was no negative record of credit extension by the data subject during the disclosure period, and no information on credit extension transactions by the data subject with financial institutions in the month and year of JICC's latest credit extension data.
		1	There was no negative record of credit extension by the data subject during the disclosure period, and information on credit extension transactions by the data subject with financial institutions in the month and year of JICC's latest credit extension data.
	Y	0	There were negative records of credit extension (including non-performing loans, collections and bad debts) by the data subject during the disclosure period, but the cases have been reclassified as regular credit extension or closed.
		1	There were negative records of credit extension (including non-performing loans, collections and bad debts) by the data subject during the disclosure period, and the cases have not been reclassified as regular credit extension or closed. Under this circumstance, the total outstanding amount of the negative records of credit extension (including non-performing loans, collections and bad debts) in the "month and year of JICC's latest credit extension data" as reported by all the financial institutions was also disclosed and expressed in thousands of NT dollars.