

Undertaking

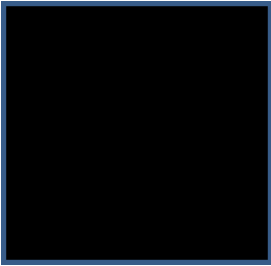

To: Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation

The client, including _____ etc. (as listed in Attachment 1), is an employee of this company or its spouse or minor child. The original identifications of the internal audit/legal compliance personnel appointed by the client, named _____, are confirmed true upon verification. The client has indeed appointed this company to make inquiries about its personal information such as account opening, brokerage trading and trading data at the centralized stock exchange market and further authorizes and appoints _____ to submit an application to you for inquiring about information and collecting inquiry results.

This company and the aforementioned authorized personnel represent that in collecting the personal information of the client, they have not engaged in acts of collection, processing, and use beyond the scope of appointment and authorization.

I agree to be held civilly and criminally liable under the law for forgery etc. if any of the above is false or untrue.
